

I just want to go on record as stating that I am against BPL and that I think it would be a disaster for ham radio operators as well as public service organizations. Many of our volunteer fire fighters and ambulance services use the UHF/VHF bands.